Milwaukee, WI - The upper Midwest has an exciting new illustration event for artists looking to learn from industry leaders. Fantasy Art Workshop's Illustration Intensive runs June 18 – 22, 2018, at Milwaukee's picturesque Alverno College. Fantasy Art Workshop is led by Wisconsin Artist & Illustrator Jeff Miracola, whose YouTube channel boasts 80+ instructional videos and more than 1.7 million views. He's also the star of Fantasy Art Workshop's award-winning art instructional DVDs.

Illustration Intensive 2018 will feature three renown fantasy/commercial/gaming illustrators as faculty:

- Painting Techniques Video Host Jeff Miracola,

- Hasbro Conceptual Artist Steve Prescott.

We are also delighted to highlight three heavy hitting guests of honor:

- Award-winning children's book illustrator Scott Gustafson,
- Magic: the Gathering Senior Art Director Dawn Murin, and
- Dire Wolf Digital Art Director Jon Schindehette.

And rounding out the team are guest artists:

Artists need not create fantasy art. All genres of illustration, all levels of artists, beginners to professionals, working in all media, digital or traditional, are welcome.

The Illustration Intensive is five days of presentations, workshops, portfolio reviews, and communing with fellow creatives, leading to a finished work by week's end. As a bonus, attendees stay at the lovely Alverno College, just a 10-minute drive from Mitchell International Airport (MKE) and featuring spacious art facilities, catered meals, comfortable dorms, and easy proximity to amenities.

Registration is open. It includes the workshop, housing, and food. Registration can also exclude housing for those who have other arrangements.
